2. Commends the efforts and initiatives of the Secretary-General aimed at reforming the United Nations;

3. Reiterates that the activities included in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1998-1999 must be derived from the medium-term plan for the period 1998-2001,[6] which is the principal policy directive of the Organization, taking into account regulation 4.2 of the Regulations and Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation;

4. Emphasizes that for the sake of transparency and accountability, it is essential to establish clear relationships between the programmes as approved and the entity responsible for their delivery;

5. Reaffirms its support for maintaining the international character of the Organization and to the principles of efficiency, competence and integrity enshrined in Article 101 of the Charter of the United Nations;

6. Stresses that the reform proposals approved in its resolutions 52/12 A and 52/12 B will be implemented with full respect for the relevant mandates, decisions and resolutions of the General Assembly, in particular the medium-term plan for the period 1998-2001;

[6] Ibid., Fifty-first Session, Supplement No. 6 and corrigendum (A/51/6/Rev.1 and Corr.1).

12. Notes with concern the observation of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions[7] that full justification for reductions of posts has not been provided, which should be done as it is in the case of the creation of new posts;

13. Reaffirms that, whenever a post becomes vacant, a proper programmatic/workload justification will be needed for its retention, abolition or redeployment;

14. Also reaffirms that the implementation of the reform measures and the reduction of posts must not entail involuntary separation of staff;

15. Takes note that some of the posts proposed to be abolished will not be vacant until the end of the first year of the biennium;

16. Decides that the staffing table for each year of the biennium 1998-1999 shall be as contained in annex I.A to the present resolution;

17. Notes with concern the trend in increases of high-level posts and reductions of lower-level posts, which may affect the potential for rejuvenation of the Organization and the capacity of the Organization for full implementation of the approved mandates;

18. Emphasizes that the reduction in the posts should not affect full implementation of all mandated programmes and activities;

19. Requests the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its fifty-third session, in accordance with the commitments undertaken in his report on renewing the United Nations: a programme for reform,[8] a report on developments in the post structure of the Secretariat over the past ten years, on the forward-looking human resources management policy that he intends to develop, both for the short and medium term, with a view to rejuvenating the Organization, and on the impact that such a policy should have on developments in post structure in the future;

21. Decides to delete the references to type II gratis personnel in budget documents;

24. Expresses its concern that a number of sections in the proposed programme budget were not prepared in complete conformity with the medium-term plan for 1998-2001;[6]

25. Decides to make changes, as contained in annex II to the present resolution, to the programme narrative in the final published version of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1998-1999,[7] as reflected in the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination at its thirty-seventh session;[5]

26. Also decides to make changes, as contained in annex III to the present resolution, to the programme narrative in the report of the Secretary-General on United Nations reform: measures and proposals;[4]

5. Notes that the Secretary-General has provided a series of organigrammes for the various departments in the proposed programme budget for the biennium 1998-1999, and requests that this become standard practice for each budget section in future programme budgets and that the organigrammes include posts from all sources of funding;

6. Welcomes the format adopted by the Secretary-General in his report on United Nations reform: measures and proposals[11] concerning the transfer of resources between sections with a view to establishing new departments, and requests the Secretary-General, in the interests of transparency, to ensure that proposed transfers of posts and other resources between budget sections are explained in the same manner in future programme budgets;

through the Advisory Committee to the General Assembly at its first resumed fifty-second session;

20. Also regrets that the report requested by the General Assembly in paragraph 14 of its resolution 51/221 B on the use of consultants was not provided by 1 March 1997, and requests the Secretary-General to provide the report to the Assembly at the first resumed session of its fifty-second session;

21. Urges all Member States to pay their assessed contributions in full, on time and without imposing conditions to avoid the financial difficulties being experienced by the Organization;

22. Endorses the observation of the Advisory Committee[11] that a high vacancy rate hampers the delivery of mandated programmes and that deliberate management decisions to keep a certain number of posts vacant makes the budget process less transparent and management of staff resources more difficult;

23. Reaffirms that the vacancy rate is a tool for budgetary calculations, and should not be used to achieve budgetary savings;

24. Notes that requirement in respect of the Joint Inspection Unit, the International Civil Service Commission and the Conference and Security Services at Vienna are presented for appropriation on a net basis;

Annex III

Changes to be made in the programme narratives contained in the report of the Secretary-General on United Nations reform: measures and proposals

1. Replace paragraphs 2B.1 and 2B.2 of document A/52/303 with the following new paragraphs based on programme 26 of the medium-term plan for the period 1998-2001 and renumber the remaining paragraphs accordingly:

"2B.1 The mandate for the programme on disarmament stems from the Charter of the United Nations and from the aims and purposes proclaimed by the General Assembly. The implementation of this programme should be guided by the priorities established in the relevant General Assembly resolutions and decisions. The new Department for Disarmament Affairs will be responsible for implementing this programme.

"2B.2 The first objective of this programme is to provide organizational and substantive secretariat support to multilateral bodies entrusted with deliberation and/or negotiations on disarmament issues, including the meeting of States parties and other international meetings related to multilateral disarmament agreements.

"2B.3 The second objective is to follow and assess current and future trends in the field of disarmament and international security in order to assist Member States, and to enable the Secretary-General also to assist them, in their search for agreement. Apart from substantive issues involved in the deliberative and/or negotiating process, this activity should address the challenges arising from the implementation of the relevant General Assembly resolutions as well as relevant treaties.

"2B.4 The third objective will be to support and promote regional disarmament efforts and initiatives using approaches freely among the States of the region and taking into account the legitimate requirements of States for self-defence and specific characteristics of each region. Regional solutions will be more vigorously pursued as regional conflicts increasingly pose a threat to peace and security. Regional dialogue on crucial disarmament and security issues will be advanced through, inter alia, the organization of conferences.

"2B.5 The fourth objective consists of providing impartial, factual information on the disarmament efforts of the United Nations to Member States, parliamentarians, research and academic institutions, and specialized non-governmental organizations through the disarmament information programme and by providing Member States with full access to all relevant databases, including on disarmament. This would include, as appropriate, organizing open-ended conferences, seminars and workshops for informal exchanges of views on arms control, disarmament and international security issues. The disarmament fellowship programme will continue to be pursued with the primary objective of promoting further the disarmament expertise of Member States, particularly in the developing countries. Member States will be assisted in addressing specific disarmament concerns through the provision of training and advisory services.

"2B.6 The fifth objective would be to continue to inform the public on an objective and updated basis of the United Nations disarmament activities. In this context, the three regional centres for peace and disarmament established in Nepal, Peru and Togo should be utilized. These centres should address the important security problems in their respective regions and subregions in a balanced manner.

"2B.7 This programme is expected to enable Member States to conduct deliberations and negotiations on disarmament issues in a smooth and efficient manner; facilitate the task of the Secretary-General in the conduct of his relations with Member States on disarmament matters; contribute to an integrated approach to issues relating to the maintenance of peace and security; and facilitate the exchange of ideas between governmental and non-governmental sectors with a view to promoting a better understanding of United Nations endeavours in the field of disarmament."

2. In paragraph 14.1, last line, after "terrorism" add "in all its forms and manifestations".

3. In paragraph 14.2, first sentence, replace "especially organized ... crime and violence" by "in particular, organized transnational crime, economic crime, corruption, terrorism in all its forms and manifestations, environmental offences and illicit traffic in children and women".

4. In paragraph 14.3, first sentence, delete "national" and "the transition to".

5. In paragraph 14.4, after "terrorism" add "in all its forms and manifestations".

6. Paragraph 22.2 should read: "The programme aims at a major strengthening of coordination for human rights throughout the United Nations system leading to a comprehensive and integrated approach to the promotion and protection of human rights based on the contributions of each of the United Nations organs, bodies and specialized agencies whose activities deal with the human rights and on improved inter-agency cooperation and coordination. The coordinating role of the Office for the United Nations High Commissioner on Human Rights also implies that the New York office is strengthened."

7. Delete paragraphs 22.3 and 22.4 and renumber the remaining paragraphs accordingly.

8. In paragraph 25.2 (b), delete "notably the Security Council".

9. In paragraph 25.7, at the end of the fourth sentence, add "in accordance with resolution 51/243 on gratis personnel".

10. In subprogramme 2, Complex emergencies, the second sentence, replace "to include ... operations" by "in accordance with the medium-term plan for 1998-2001 and subsequent legislative mandates".

11. In paragraph 26.3, fifth line, after "coordinators" add "taking into the views of the host government".

12. In paragraph 27A.9, first sentence, replace "The Unit ... public sector" by "The Unit will also be responsible for ensuring that the Organization has best possible managerial policies in place".

13. In paragraph 27A.10, second sentence, delete "national".
